Subject: Library Board

I received your letter re-appointing me to the Clarkdale Library Advisory Board. Unfortunately, I have decided I cannot accept this appointment. While I have genuinely loved serving on the board, the library is going in a different, and admittedly much-needed direction than previously, and the current direction is not one which fits my personal interests and passions. I am also finding myself unexpectedly busy with my daughter's JV cheer activities. In addition, I recently purchased a new home in lower Clarkdale which is requiring a lot of indoor and outdoor upkeep. These factors, in addition to my job as an adult probation officer, have forced me to re-evaluate my priorities. Please accept this as my resignation from the Library Board. Thanks you.
