A protracted discussion of CAP and Colorado Pact water rights structure took place and Mr. Dishlip gave us his estimation of what rights might be available and at what cost. The bottom line, to me, was that whatever rights we acquire on the Colorado will be very low-priority rights and will come at considerable cost. It was questionable whether the Verde Valley communities should continue to consider Colorado River water as a viable water augmentation strategy.

Made in Clarkdale 2007 marks the 21st year of our celebration of the Arts and Community. This year has seen a major addition to the arts – the gifting of Clarkdale’s historic Grand Theatre to the Verde Valley Theatre as its future ‘home’.

As the arts continue to grow and flourish and continue to engage the hearts and minds of its makers, performers and audiences, the Town of Clarkdale, through its Town Council, reaffirms its commitment to the arts.

WHEREAS: We applaud the diversity in approaches to making and producing our visual and performing arts, and

WHEREAS; we recognize that art is one of the best ways to engage young and old in learning, and

WHEREAS; the arts are a sound economic investment, attracting audiences, supporting jobs and generating government revenue, and

WHEREAS; art and culture, simply described, is one of the things that makes life worth living, and

WHEREAS; history may judge us largely by our arts and culture,

THEREFORE; the Mayor and Town Council declare December as Clarkdale’s ART MONTH, recognizing that as our town develops, the arts will continue to flourish, and they must be part of our legacy.

Councilmember Williams moved, seconded by Councilmember Sa to approve the Proclamation declaring December as Arts Month in Clarkdale. Motion passed unanimously.

PRESENTATION – Yavapai County Assessor presentation regarding property assessment process. Victor Hambrick, Yavapai County Assessor, presented a PowerPoint presentation to the Council explaining the operation and process of the County Assessors Office.

COUNCIL UPDATE – INTERNATIONAL PROPERTY MAINTENANCE CODE. An update on the first year of Staff's implementation of the enforcement efforts relating to the 2003 International Property Maintenance Code. The Town Council adopted an amended version of the 2003 International Property Maintenance Code (PMC), and directed Staff to inspect the Town for junk vehicles, missing address numbers and rubbish. Building Official Baker informed the Council that the Clarkdale Police Explorers helped immensely by distributing flyers explaining the need for address numbers on buildings whose rear yard abuts alleys or streets, and offering to install them. 136 numbers have been distributed to date. There have been approximately 650 initial property maintenance inspections done since the PMC was adopted, predominantly in the Upper Clarkdale and Haskell Springs areas. Out of 119 violations, 38 are active, and 81 have been resolved. Only a certain portion of staffing can be dedicated to property maintenance code inspections. The Building Inspector has been able to spend additional time on the project since building permits are down. Currently, the Inspector is spending 20 – 25 hours per week, along with additional staff time of about 5 hours per week. Violations are being corrected, citizens are more involved and aware, and the Town is looking much better. The next target area will be lower Clarkdale.

INOPERABLE VEHICLES ON PRIVATE PROPERTY - Discussion and direction to staff relating to a Town Code Amendment for Inoperable Vehicles on Private Property, Section 302.8, 2003 International Property Maintenance Code. When the 2003 International Property Maintenance Code was approved by Council for inclusion in the Town Code, one of the amendments allowed an unspecified number of inoperable or unlicensed vehicles to be stored on private property as long as they were covered by a commercial cover, or stored inside a building. Building Official Baker explained that the Community Development Department (CDD), as well as the Mayor and several Council members, received complaints from residents that even though the vehicles were covered, they were still an eyesore along with being a health and safety hazard. The residents who have complained feel that rather than having the vehicles covered, they should be removed, or at the very least, completely screened, and a limitation established for the number of inoperable vehicles that may be openly stored.

After much discussion, the consensus of the Council was that all inoperable vehicles be allowed to be stored in the rear yard only, with the exception of a suitable garage or outbuilding; a limit of no more than two vehicles be allowed per premises; an opaque fence complying with the Zoning Ordinance must be used to screen any inoperable vehicles from public and private view; and that new provisions take effect one year from the adoption of the amendments. Covers would be needed until compliance with the amended ordinance. Building Official Baker will return with an amendment to the Property Maintenance Code which will also address the fence code.

CONTRACT – MESCAL WELL ENGINEERING CONTRACT - Consideration of an amendment to the existing contract between Willdan and the Town of Clarkdale for engineering of the Mescal Well project adding the electrical design. Willdan, the engineering firm that is providing awarded engineering services for the Town of Clarkdale's Mescal Well has submitted an amendment to their contract. Utility Director Doba explained the electrical engineering amendment to the Mescal Well contract between the Town and Willdan. The original contract in the amount of $91,274.50 was submitted by Willdan without electrical design costs being included until a portion of the design was completed and electrical needs were determined. Willdan has now completed the design portion of the wells components and is able to identify the electrical requirements and develop the required information to secure an electrical designer. The electrical design and administration amendment to the contract is an additional $18,325.25. Site Survey costs have been revised due to Town staff contracting locally for surveying services and removing $3,500 from the contract costs along with an additional removal of $1,000 for coordination and administration costs.

The original contract will be reviewed to see if the electrical and arsenic removal were included. The Mayor proposed to table this item until there is a more detailed report from Willdan clarifying the expense. Council would like to review the original contract also and it should be included in the council packet for review.

CONTRACT – MAIN STREET WATERLINE ENGINEERING CONTRACT -

Consideration of an amendment to the existing contract between Willdan and the Town of Clarkdale for engineering of the Main Street Waterline replacement project. Utility Director Doba explained that Willdan did not have internal staffing to provide survey work for their project. Town staff was able to contract locally for the service and remove $3,700 from the Willdan contract, for a new total of $31,650. Councilmember Sa moved, and Vice Mayor Wiley seconded to approve the amendment to the existing contract between Willdan and the Town of Clarkdale for the engineering of the Main Street Waterline replacement project making the new total contract $31,650. Motion passed unanimously.

INTERGOVERNMENTAL AGREEMENT – YAVAPAI COUNTY FLOOD CONTROL AGREEMENT – Discussion and consideration of acceptance of an intergovernmental agreement for $67,785.00 between the Town of Clarkdale and Yavapai County Flood Control District, to fund drainage studies, install culverts, improve drainage ways and other flood mitigation work. Public Works Superintendent Dennis Inman explained that Yavapai County Flood Control District had set aside carry-over FY 2006-07 funds to assist the Town with flood control measures in the Black Hills Estates. The Town has identified an area near the cemetery that requires flood control attention and are negotiating with Yavapai County Flood Control to use these existing approved funds for that project. Councilmember Williams moved, and Councilmember Sa seconded the approval of the Yavapai County Flood Control Intergovernmental Agreement for $67,785.00 between the Town of Clarkdale and Yavapai County Flood Control District, to fund drainage studies, install culverts, improve drainage ways and other flood mitigation work. Passed unanimously.
