

Yavapai College Foundation News Release

October 8, 2012

Contact: Kim Flores, (928) 776-2025

Greater Verde Valley Chapter of the Yavapai College Foundation to host Art, Wine & Dine ‘French Flair in the Verde Countryside’

CLARKDALE – The public, friends and supporters of Yavapai College will enjoy a taste of the Verde countryside during Yavapai College Foundation - Greater Verde Valley Chapter’s Third Annual Art, Wine & Dine “French Flair in the Verde Countryside,” Thursday, October 25, 5:30 p.m. in the new outdoor pavilion at YC’s Verde Valley Campus, 601 Black Hills Drive in Clarkdale.

This year’s gala will begin with a Verde Valley wine tasting reception and a silent auction of fabulous artwork and exciting packages set to music of Arizona’s premier wind quintet, Thunder Mountain Winds. Guests will experience an epicurean adventure featuring three courses created by Abbie’s Kitchen paired with wines presented by featured local vintners. Musical stylings by violinist Jonathan Levingston will set the tone for a special evening under the stars.

Proceeds of the event will benefit the creation of the Southwest Wine Center at Yavapai College.

Reservations are required at $100 per person. Sponsorships are encouraged and begin at $2,000. Tables seat eight people. The event sells out every year, so guests are encouraged to make their reservations now at www.yc.edu/artwinedine.

For more information, call Kim Flores, YCF Development Coordinator at (928) 776-2025 or e-mail kim.flores@yc.edu.

###