Kristen Kauffman Writing Workshop

A Workshop for Writers Interested in Publishing in the Modern World

Camp Verde September 18 2015: Camp Verde Community Library presents another ONEBOOKAZ free writing workshop with Kristen Kauffman in Camp Verde on Friday, September 18, 2015 from 10 a.m. to noon.

Are you the kind of writer who has a draft but doesn't know where to go with it next? Are you interested in publishing in the modern world? Bring a maximum of five pages of your latest manuscript and join us at this two-hour workshop to discover options for your next steps.

During the workshop, you will have the opportunity to work with your prepared material in a variety of ways, from group work to writing about the project and using what you write to turn into a written proposal. After working on approaches to move forward with your draft, Ms. Kauffman will spend the rest of the workshop demonstrating how to submit an eBook and/or make queries through resources like Duotrope.com and Amazon.com. At the close of the workshop, you will see how to submit your eBook to the ONEBOOKAZ contest.

Kauffman has an MFA in Creative Writing and is an instructor of Creative Writing at Yavapai College. She is a published novelist, poet, and writer of creative nonfiction. Her Steampunk story, The Seamstress's Daughter was the feature piece in the September issue of The Rejected Writer. This is her second year working with ONEBOOKAZ.

The workshop is sponsored by Arizona Center for the Book, Arizona State Library, Archives and Public Records, a division of the Secretary of State and the Institute of Museum and Library Services.

The workshop will be held from 10:00 a.m. to noon on Friday, September 18, 2015 in Camp Verde. Space is limited. Registration is required. To register stop by the Camp Verde Community Library or call (928) 554-8380.
