EXPLORING CLARKDALE

Tuesday, October 16th 1:00pm
BEHIND THE SCENES AT VERDE CANYON RAILROAD

Tour the Verde Canyon Railroad Depot and John Bell Museum with Exploring Clarkdale on Tuesday, October 16, beginning at 1:00pm. Advance registration is required for this educational field trip. To reserve your space for this unique tour call Clark Memorial Library (928) 639-2480 or stop by at 39 N. Ninth Street in the Town Complex. The program is free and limited to 20 participants on a first-come first-served basis. Participants should be able to walk and climb stairs without assistance for the “step-on” tour of the train cars however the walking tour of the buildings is handicap accessible.

Participants will meet at Verde Canyon Railroad on the patio adjacent to the depot. The depot is located at 300 North Broadway, Clarkdale. From Cottonwood, take Historic 89A through Old Town Cottonwood, past the turnoff for Tuzigoot National Monument until you see the signs for Verde Canyon Railroad. Continue straight on Broadway, crossing the bridge, until you see the depot. Parking is across from the depot.
