FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

The Town of Clarkdale announces the 2007 Concerts in the Park series line-up. The Clarkdale Parks and Recreation annually hosts a series of concerts in the Clarkdale Park which begins at the end of May and continues throughout the month of October. These concerts are held at the gazebo on Saturday evenings from 6 p.m. – 8 p.m. and are free to the public. This year there will be 10 concerts offering a wide variety of genres varying from mariachi, swing, jazz, rock and roll, hip hop/rap, country and of course some of the area's favorites, Sentimental Journey, Danny Rhodes and the Messengers and Major Lingo. The first concert is scheduled on May 26th with the eclectic rock and blues band the Knuckleheads. Vendors are still needed and are encouraged to contact Clarkdale Parks and Recreation. The 2007 Concerts in the Park flier may be picked up at Clarkdale Town Hall, 890 Main Street, or is available on the Town website: www.clarkdale.az.us. For more information please contact Dawn Norman, Parks and Recreation Supervisor, at Clarkdale Town Hall (928) 634-9591 or by email: dawnn@clarkdale.az.us.
